

RDM

EVENTS

COMPANY RULES
RDM EVENTS

RDM EVENTS COMPANY RULES

1. General

- a. Upon entering RDM Events, you agree to and abide by these company rules.
- b. These company rules apply to everyone who is present in or on the RDM Events site.
- c. You must always follow instructions from the RDM Events employees, or as the case may be from the authorised persons appointed by the RDM Events management. The RDM Events management or the persons appointed by the RDM Events management will have the final decision in situations which are not provided for in these rules.

2. Parking

- a. Visitors must only park their car in the parking spaces intended for this purpose, or in the designated parking spaces..
- b. Visitors risk their car being towed away if 2(a) is not complied with.
- c. The use of the designated parking spaces in the car park or expedition grounds, will be at one's own risk. RDM Events does not accept any liability for any damage whatsoever, on whatsoever basis.

3. Admission to RDM Events, in particular "Onderzeebootloods"

- a. Admission to the Onderzeebootloods is only possible when showing a valid admission ticket, or by another given authorisation by or on behalf of RDM Events.
- b. Any admission tickets that have been bought cannot be exchanged or returned.
- c. RDM Events can decide to conduct (preventative) frisking/body searches. The RDM Events security guards and the authorised persons appointed by the RDM Events management will be entitled to inspect by means of searches any coats, bags, suitcases, and all that which one carries, and by means of 'superficial frisk' under private law of clothing, pockets and any shoes, in order to seize impermissible goods and items, if deemed necessary by the employee or the appointed authorised persons.
- d. RDM Events applies a minimum advice age of 16 years for independent visits to events (without supervision from an adult). Visitors under the age of 18 years have no access to night events, unless otherwise mentioned by the organizer.
- e. Visitors will be obliged to provide proof of identity upon request.
- f. It is not permitted to enter (parts of) the Onderzeebootloods or the Congresscentre, which do not form part of the event, convention, trade fair, or as the case may be which are not accessible for visitors.
- g. In principle, visitors who leave RDM Events during an event are no longer given access.
- h. Taking into account the corona measures, a health check can take place upon entry. We request visitors with health problems / cold-like symptoms / fever to stay home and / or we can requests you to go home.

4. Refusal of admission, removal and financial penalty

- a. RDM Events employees or authorised persons appointed by the RDM Events management will at any time be entitled to refuse admission or remove visitors from RDM Events, who do not comply with the company rules, or who in any other manner whatsoever cause nuisance or annoyance by their behaviour.
- b. These visitors will furthermore owe RDM Events an immediately due and payable financial penalty of 500 euros without prejudice to the right of RDM Events to compensation. In addition, an admission ban can be imposed on these visitors for a specific duration.
- c. Any criminal acts observed will always be reported to the police immediately. The persons appointed by RDM Events management will be entitled in such cases to make an arrest and to transfer the person(s) concerned to the police.

RDM EVENTS COMPANY RULES

5. In RDM Events

- a. Bringing the following items and goods inside RDM Events is prohibited:
 - Food and beverages;
 - Large and unhandy objects such as suitcases, backpacks and bags larger than A4 size and thicker than 10 cm (including wheels, handles and front and side pockets);
 - Dangerous items, including knives, glass and/or cans, weapons;
 - Soft- and harddrugs or alcohol;
 - Poisonous, easily inflammable, or easily explosive materials, fireworks;
 - In-line skates, scooters, bicycles, skates, skateboards, etc.;
 - Animals/pets, with the exception of a guide dog;
 - Banners, cardboard/paper boards with inscription (up to a maximum of A4 size is allowed), flags or flagpoles thicker than 2 cm and longer than 1.5 m;
 - Professional photo, video or audio recording equipment;
 - All other items that in the exclusive opinion of RDM Events and the persons appointed by the RDM Events management can result in danger to health, safety or public order.
- b. The items/goods that have been seized will be stored at the owner's risk until the end of the visit to RDM Events, unless the organiser of the event applies another policy, or if the items/goods are prohibited by law.
- c. It is not permitted to block paths, (emergency) exits, stairs or fire-extinguishing equipment.
- d. It is not permitted to offer goods and services for sale, such as admission tickets, drinks, food, and merchandise or to distribute leaflets, flyers, and other kinds of advertising in and on the RDM Events site and the immediate surroundings thereof, unless RDM Events has provided permission in writing.
- e. Advertising is exclusively reserved for RDM Events.
- f. Rubbish, including that of consumed drinks and food, must be deposited in the waste bins intended for this purpose.
- g. It is prohibited to cause damage to goods or injury to persons, or to behave in such a manner (objectionably) that such damage is pending. It is in particular prohibited to stand on chairs, to climb structures or the podium, to stage dive, to crowd surf, and to throw items, including liquids. It is furthermore prohibited to behave in such a manner (including, but not limited to, wearing specific clothes, such as (sports)club-affiliated and provocative or face-covering clothes, making specific statements), which in the exclusive opinion of the RDM Events management, can result in disruption of order.
- h. In RDM Events one can be exposed to noise levels above 80 dBA. Wearing hearing protection falls under your own responsibility. The RDM Events management recommends using hearing protection to prevent hearing damage.
- i. Taking into account the corona measures, visitors must adhere to the following:
 - do not shake hands;
 - keep a distance of 1.5m;
 - wash your hands regularly and / or use disinfection material;
 - cough and sneeze in a paper tissue or on the inside of your elbow;
 - you are not allowed to sing along, with music and / or during performances;
 - due to health problems / cold-like problems / fever you may be requested to leave and go home.

6. Photo, video, sound and other recordings

- a. Making photo, video, audio and other recordings is only permitted if the organiser of the event has provided permission for this.
- b. The use of a 'selfie stick' is not permitted during concerts.
- c. Visitors' data can be processed in the entire RDM Events complex, such as registering (with camera) an event for commercial or security purposes. Upon entering RDM Events, the visitor is always informed of such processing and such data will not be shared with third parties without permission, insofar this can reasonably be obtained, unless it is necessary for the provision of services and/or for compliance with a statutory obligation.

RDM EVENTS COMPANY RULES

7. Statutory regulations

- a. The possession and use of and the trade in soft- and hard drugs is strictly prohibited.
- b. Smoking, including E-smoking, is only permitted in the smoking areas indicated for this.
- c. Visitors under the age of 18 years are not permitted to buy and/or consume alcohol in and on the RDM Events site.
- d. Furthermore, visitors aged 18 years or older are not permitted to sell/provide alcohol to visitors under the age of 18 years. Visitors aged between 18 - 25 years will be obliged to get a stamp from RDM Events employees appointed for this purpose on showing their proof of identity and when RDM Events bar employees ask for this, to show their stamp and/or proof of identity.
- e. It is prohibited to enter or be present in RDM Events when intoxicated.
- f. RDM Events processes personal data including camera images of its visitors in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
- g. Visitors are obliged to obey all legal provisions, emergency regulations and protocols regarding corona measures.

8. Security/emergencies

- a. RDM Events uses 24-hour camera surveillance and will, certainly in the event of disturbances or accidents, make images/recordings available to third parties, including judicial authorities.
- b. Visitors who are present in or on the RDM Events site must inform themselves of the escape routes, which must be used in the event of an emergency.
- c. RDM Events will be entitled to evacuate the entire site if this is necessary.

9. No compensation

- a. Visiting and parking in RDM Events takes place entirely at one's own risk. RDM Events does not accept any liability for whatsoever damage on whatsoever basis. RDM Events will not be responsible should the organiser decide to cancel the event.

10. Respecting the neighbourhood

- Visitors to RDM Events are requested to take the surroundings into consideration:
- a. Not to park "anywhere" but to use the parking facilities indicated for this purpose.
 - b. Not to urinate in public places but to use the sanitary facilities present.
 - c. To respect the property of the local residents and not disturb their sleep.
 - d. Not to leave litter in and around RDM Events, but to deposit rubbish in the waste bins present for this purpose on and around the RDM Events site.

11. Alternation

- a. RDM Events reserves the right to make changes to these company rules. Visitors are hereby encouraged to regularly study the company rules of RDM Events with regard to changes.